Memorandum

To: Forensic Faculty and Fellows From: Stephen Noffsinger, M.D.

Date: October 22, 2024

Subject: Forensic Case Conferences/Mock Trials

The forensic psychiatry fellowships at the University of Cincinnati, Ohio State University and University Hospitals of Cleveland will again collaborate on forensic case conferences and mock trials, and, new for this year, we are collaborating with Emory University

Listed below is the schedule of case conferences and mock trials which occur on Friday mornings 9 AM to 10:30 AM, via ZOOM.

The reports and ZOOM link will be sent in advance of each scheduled activity.

Mock Trial Schedule

Testimony	Report
Date	Due Date	Expert Witness	Direct Exam	Cross Exam
10/11/24	10/4/24	Cooper	Friedman	Noffsinger
11/8/24	11/1/24	Copley	Barett	VanDercar
11/15/24	11/8/24	Emory fellow	Dedania	Marett
11/22/24	11/15/24	Douglas	Brown	Misquitta
12/6/24	11/29/24	Hicks	Ash	Resnick
12/13/24	11/22/24	Philip	Marett	Noffsinger

Mock Trial General Guidelines:

- 1. Testimony begins promptly at 9 AM.
- 2. The expert witness should submit their report and CV to the other mock trial participants (via email or hard copy) on the Report Due date.
- 3. The expert witness and direct examiner should have a pre-trial conference to plan their direct testimony.
- 4. If you are going to be away on a day when you are scheduled to participate in the mock trial, please find a substitute.

Forensic Case Conference Schedule

Date	Presenter	Discussant
11/1/24	Gill	Bodnar
12/20/24	Ellis	Resnick

The format for the Forensic Case Conferences is:

- 1. Identifying Information
- 2. Sources of Information
- 3. Social History
- 4. Educational History
- 5. Occupational History
- 6. Legal History
- 7. Military History
- 8. Medical History
- 9. Family Psychiatric History
- 10. Psychiatric History
- 11. Substance Use History
- 12. Current Medications
- 13. Mental Status Examination
- 14. Competency Evaluation
- 15. Collateral Accounts of Offense
- 16. Defendant's Account of Offense
- 17. Brief live interview of defendant

Memorandum

To:

Forensic Faculty and Fellows

From:

Stephen Noffsinger, M.D.

Date:

January 8, 2025

Subject:

Forensic Case Conferences/Mock Trials

The forensic psychiatry fellowships at the University of Cincinnati, Ohio State University and University Hospitals of Cleveland will again collaborate on forensic case conferences and mock trials, and, new for this year, we are collaborating with Emory University

Listed below is the schedule of case conferences and mock trials which occur on Friday mornings 9 AM to 10:30 AM, via ZOOM.

The reports and ZOOM link will be sent in advance of each scheduled activity.

Mock Trial Schedule

Testimony	Report
Date	Due Date	Expert Witness	Direct Exam	Cross Exam
1/17/25	1/10/25	Ellis	Gill	Hicks
1/31/251	1/24/25	Cooper	Copley	Douglas
2/21/25	2/14/25	Phillip	Ellis	Gill
3/7/25	2/28/25	Hicks	Cooper	Copley
3/28/25	3/21/25	Douglas	Ellis	Gill
4/4/21	3/28/25	Hicks	Phillip	Cooper
4/25/25	4/18/25	Copley	Douglas	Ellis
5/2/25	4/25/25	Gill	Hicks	Phillip
5/16/25	5/9/25	Cooper	Copley	Douglas
6/6/25	5/30/25	Ellis	Gil1	Hicks
6/20/25	6/13/25	Phillip	Cooper	Copley

Mock Trial General Guidelines:

- 1. Testimony begins promptly at 9 AM.
- 2. The expert witness should submit their report and CV to the other mock trial participants (via email or hard copy) on the Report Due date.
- 3. The expert witness and direct examiner should have a pre-trial conference to plan their direct testimony.
- 4. If you are going to be away on a day when you are scheduled to participate in the mock trial, please find a substitute

Forensic Case Conference Schedule

Date	Presenter	Discussant
2/7/25	Copley	VanDercar
3/14/25	Cooper	Henning
4/11/25	Phillip	Hatters-Friedman
5/9/25	Douglas	Misquitta
6/13/25	Hicks	Marett

The format for the Forensic Case Conferences is:

- 1. Identifying Information
- 2. Sources of Information
- 3. Social History
- 4. Educational History
- 5. Occupational History
- 6. Legal History
- 7. Military History
- 8. Medical History
- 9. Family Psychiatric History
- 10. Psychiatric History
- 11. Substance Use History
- 12. Current Medications
- 13. Mental Status Examination
- 14. Competency Evaluation
- 15. Collateral Accounts of Offense
- 16. Defendant's Account of Offense
- 17. Brief live interview of defendant