2025 CATALOG

Welcome to the Rainbow Safety Store!

Raising children is definitely expensive. The good news is keeping your children safe doesn't have to break the bank. Rainbow offers the Safety Store as a convenient and cost-effective way for parents to get important items. There are also plenty of free things parents can do to prevent unintentional injuries. Consider the following tips to get started:

- Keep an eye on your children at all times. This is the best way to keep children safe and it doesn't cost a penny.
- Keep poisonous items like medicines and cleaners locked away and out of reach of children.
- Do not let children play on stairs, furniture, balconies, roofs, streets, or parking lots.
- Practice an escape plan with your family in case of a fire or other disaster.
- Cook on back burners and keep handles facing away from the front of the stove so curious children cannot pull hot contents down on themselves.
- Tape any loose rugs firmly to the floor/carpet to avoid slips and slides of running toddlers.

CAR SAFETY

Car Seat Shopping Guidelines

Parents often assume all car seats are the same, but they are not. A major factor contributing to the misuse of child restraints is the lack of standardization. More than a dozen manufacturers produce more than 60 different models of safety seats with different attributes and features.

When selecting a car safety seat, keep the following in mind:

- Do not base your decision solely on the price tag.
- Be aware that displays or photos may not always show the product being used the correct way.
- Do not assume all seats will fit properly in all vehicles.

If you have questions about how best to protect your little traveler, or need help installing a car seat, call the Rainbow Car Seat Hotline at 216-844-2277.

Babies under 2 use rear-facing car seats

If my child is under 2 years old and within the rear-facing weight and height limits of the seat.

- She always rides in a back seat and never in front of an air bag.
- She always rides in a car seat made for her size and age.
- She sits facing the back of the car in her car seat.
- The straps are snug on her, and I can't pinch the buckled strap.
- Her car seat is buckled tightly in the car and doesn't move more than one inch when I pull it.
- She uses a bigger seat rear-facing until she outgrows the harness. Many harnesses go to 35, 40 or 45 pounds.

Toddlers and big kids use forward-facing car seats

If my child is over age 2 AND has outgrown the weight and height limits for the rear-facing seat:

- He always rides in a back seat.
- He always rides in a car seat made for his size and age.
- The straps are snug on him, and I can't pinch the buckled strap.
- His car seat is buckled tightly in the car and doesn't move more than one inch when I pull it. I use the top tether designed for the seat.
- He uses this car seat until he outgrows the harness. Many harnesses go to 50 pounds or more.

Older, bigger kids use booster seats

If my child is over 4 feet, 9 inches tall AND has outgrown the weight and height limit of the forward-facing car seat:

- He always rides in a back seat.
- He always rides on a booster seat using a seat belt with lap and shoulder straps.
- The lap belt sits low on his hips, not his stomach.
- The shoulder belt is on his shoulder — not on his neck, under his arm or behind his back.
- The seat belt is snug, flat and comfortable on him.
- He may be between 8-12 years of age before the seat belt fits.

Kids ready for seat belts

If my child is over 4 feet, 9 inches tall and has outgrown the booster seat:

- She always rides in a back seat until age 13.
- She always uses a seat belt with lap and shoulder straps.
- The lap belt sits low on her hips, not her stomach.
- The shoulder belt is on her shoulder — not on her neck, under her arm or behind her back.
- Her back is firmly against the seat back, her knees bend at the front edge of the seat, and she can sit this way for the whole ride.
- The seat belt is snug, flat and comfortable on her. If the seat belt does not fit right, she must use a booster seat.

SPORTS SAFETY

SPORTS SAFETY

There are many great reasons to ride your bike. It offers fun, freedom, and exercise and is good for the environment. Meanwhile, skating and skateboarding can increase balance, agility, coordination, and reaction time while providing a lot of fun. By getting plenty of practice and following these safety tips, kids and adults can be smart and safe as they roll around town.

Tips for Rolling Safely:

Helmets Are a Must

Every biker/skater should wear a helmet. Wrist guards, knee guards, and elbow guards are a good idea for everyone, especially beginners.

Find the Right Helmet Fit

Make sure the helmet fits and your child knows how to put it on correctly. A helmet should sit on top of the head in a level position and should not rock forward, backward, or side to side. Always buckle the helmet straps, but make sure they are not too tight.

Does your helmet fit properly? Take the Helmet Fit Test

1

Eyes: Put the helmet on your head. Look up. You should see the bottom rim of the helmet.

2

Ears: Make sure the straps form a "V" under your ears when buckled. The straps should be a little tight but comfortable.

3

Mouth: Open your mouth as wide as you can. Does the helmet hug your head? If not, tighten the straps.

Now you're ready to roll!
